

Tatomir competes for Top Teen

Olivia Tatomir, 15, could not contain her excitement when she found out she was chosen to represent Abbotsford in this year's first Top Teen of Canada competition.

BY ABBOTSFORD TIMES JULY 4, 2008

Olivia Tatomir, 15, could not contain her excitement when she found out she was chosen to represent Abbotsford in this year's first Top Teen of Canada competition.

"It is a dream come true, and it is a great chance to show leadership and represent youth in the Abbotsford community, which I cherish very much," said Tatomir.

At first, she was hesitant about applying to be a contestant because she didn't want to be competing in a beauty pageant.

"When I found out it was for both girls and boys and was aimed at helping teens, involved in their

